INTRODUCTION

On the [illegible] rolls of this microfilm publication are reproduced the pension payment cards maintained by the Bureau of Pensions and the Veterans Administration for pension payments made from [illegible] to veterans of the American Military Establishment. The cards reproduced are part of the records of the Veterans Administration, Record Group 15.

Although an act of September 29, 1789 (1 Stat. 95), provided for the continuance of pensions approved by the Continental Congress, it did not assign the pension payment function to any department. The act of March 23, 1792 (1 Stat. 243), that permitted the addition of new names to the list of existing pensioners, specified that pension payment functions were to be exercised by the Secretary of War. Not until legislation of 1818 was the Secretary of War authorized to approve applications for pensions and to place invalids on the pension list without prior congressional approval.

By 1816 a unit known as the Office of Military Bounty Lands and Pensions had developed within the Secretary's Office. Between 1816 and 1818 the unit was referred to as the Military Bounty Land and Pension Branch (or Section). After the Branch was divided into two units in 1818, the Pension Bureau and the Land Warrant Bureau, the former was generally referred to as the Pension Office. In March 1833 Congress provided (4 Stat. 622) for the appointment of a Commissioner of Pensions under the general direction of the Secretary of War; in March 1849 Congress established (9 Stat. 395) the Department of Interior, to which the Pension Office was transferred. On July 21, 1930, by Executive Order 5398, the Bureau of Pensions (formerly called the Pension Office) was consolidated with other agencies also serving veterans to form the Veterans Administration, an independent executive agency.

Until about the middle of 1907, records of pension payments were kept in pension agency payment books. In 1907 the method was changed to a card system, and the transfer of basic information from the payment books to the payment cards for all invalids and widows still being pensioned at the time of the change in recordkeeping was begun.

There are approximately two million cards, 5 inches by 8 inches in size, reproduced in this microfilm publication. They have been filmed in alphabetical order by surname of the Army or Navy invalid or widow, except that cards with Indian names have been filmed alphabetically at the beginning of the respective letter of the alphabet. The form of the card is almost identical [illegible] payment [illegible] payments recorded on a second card [illegible]. In the few instances where a communica- tion [illegible] attached to a card, the communication has also been filmed.

[illegible] Group 15 are the pension agency payment books [illegible] the system of pension payment [illegible] for certificates [illegible] Army and Navy [illegible], widows, [illegible] 18[illegible]; and [illegible] of pension applications to 18[illegible].

The editorial material for this publication was prepared by Ma[illegible] Johnson and Wilma Farrell.
